A Subtelty

The Guild presented a Subtelty of a play depicting a culinary quest , featuring many puns on the word "Leek." As a result of this endeavor, the entire Guild was elevated by the Grand Puntiff to the status of Temporary WOAW In Training, known by the acronym TWIT. This attribute wore off after a year or two, and the Guild returned to the status of Cooks and Researchers. There were no more plays, although puns continued to occur from time to time.
